

Cookies Policy

This Policy explains how Widestream Development OÜ, incorporated and registered under the laws of Estonia with company number 14846077, having its registered office at Harju maakond, Kesklinna linnaosa, Jõe tn 3-301, 10151, Tallinn, Estonia ("Widepay", "we" or "our") uses cookies and other similar technologies in the context of the Widepay website (the "Services"). For information about how we process collect and process personal data more generally, please see our privacy policy at <https://widepay.ws/privacy-policy>.

What are cookies?

We use the term 'cookies' to refer to all technologies which store and access information on the device that you use to access the Services, such as your computer, tablet or mobile phone.

Cookies help us to improve our Services and to deliver a better and more personalized service, for instance by storing information about your preferences and allowing us to recognize whether you have visited our Services before or whether you are a new visitor.

There are different types of cookies, for example:

- Cookies served directly by Widepay ('first party cookies') and cookies served on our behalf ('third party cookies').
- Cookies which endure for different periods of time, including those that only last only as long as your browser is open (referred to as 'session cookies') These are deleted automatically once you close your browser. Other cookies are 'permanent cookies', meaning that they survive after your browser is closed. They are a type of cookie in which the information stored in the computer or device may be accessed and processed over a period of time defined by the owner of the cookie - timeframes can vary between a few minutes to several years.

Cookies can be used for different purposes, including:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies: These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the Services and use their features, such as accessing secure areas of the Services.

Which Cookies does Widepay use and why do we use them?

The following table sets out the different categories of cookies that the Services use and why we use them.

Type of cookie	Source	What these cookies do	Cookie Name	Duration
Strictly Necessary Cookies	Widepay	This cookie is used to store user data on the server-side.	_widepay_session	Session Cookie

Your Choices About Cookies

In some countries you have right to choose whether or not to accept cookies. However, they are an important part of how our Services work, so you should be aware that if you choose to refuse or remove cookies, this could affect the availability and functionality of the Services. If you do not want our Services to use cookies, you can opt-out using your browser settings following the instructions set out below.

Website (Browser) Opt-Out

Most browsers accept cookies by default. You may be able to change the settings to have your browser refuse certain cookies or notify you before accepting cookies. You may also choose to withdraw your consent to our use of cookies at any time and delete cookies that have already been set. To do so, please follow the instructions provided by your browser which are usually located within the "Help", "Tools" or "Edit" facility.

The website www.allaboutcookies.org contains comprehensive information about the process of opting out on different browsers.

If you are in the EU and would like to opt out of third party cookies relating to behavioral advertising, please go to www.youronlinechoices.eu. Opting out does not mean you will no longer receive online advertising. It does mean that the company or companies from which you opted out will no longer deliver ads tailored to your web preferences and usage patterns.

Mobile App Opt-Out

To interest-based advertising on your mobile device, you can review and adjust the settings provided by your device manufacturer, such as “Limit Ad Tracking” for iOS or “Opt-out of interest-based ads” for Android.
